1) What does your position do?

This position supports efforts to bring in donations for the Auxiliary's grant program through the popcorn stand in the BAMC atrium!

Duties include: maintaining (cleaning) popcorn equipment, replacing items needed to keep stand running (popcorn, paper towels, etc.), depositing cash collected, and managing the volunteer schedule of regular popper volunteers and fill-ins (including arranging training).

3) What do you think would make someone successful at this position? (I.e. ability to talk to strangers, free time in the evenings, strong organizational skills)

This position thrives with someone who can spend time getting to know our regular volunteers and working on new volunteers. Most of the work can be done whenever you are free, but I recommend someone with at least some flexibility during weekdays so that they can be available for volunteers if something happens (rare) and are able to fill in slots/train new volunteers.

This position is fairly consistent all year.

WFSC Meals Chair; Held by Fran H.

1) What does your position do?

The WFSC Chair organizes dinners for the WFSC every fourth Thursday of each month (with the exception of November (pies only) and December (brunch)). Doing this includes contacting different restaurants/catering businesses each month by phone and asking if they'd be willing to donate and/or offer a discount on a meal for ~130 warriors (including their families). E-mails are then exchanged - a formal letter requesting the donation with our 501(c)(3) status and tax ID number and their agreement with official invoice (so the WFSC can pay for the meal).

2) How many hours outside of the monthly board meeting does your job require?

Time spent each month changes from month to month based on how much micromanaging/extra communication is needed on my part. If all things go smoothly, there tends to be 2 hours contacting people and sending out e-mails and then spend 2 hours at the dinner. When a restaurant is hard to get ahold of or doesn't follow up in a timely manner, the position may require an extra hour tracking people and documents down.

3) What do you think would make someone successful at this position? (I.e. ability to talk to strangers, free time in the evenings, strong organizational skills)

To be successful in this position, you need to be able to communicate clearly, follow-up in a timely manner, arrive early to dinners (punctuality), plan ahead (donation requests for some companies require 6-8 weeks) and be okay explaining to people our purpose and asking them if they'd be willing to donate/discount their food and services.

4) Is there a specific time of the year that your position is busier than others?

This position is pretty steady in that it requires pretty much the same amount of attention from month to month. November is probably the only month that doesn't require as much planning.
