Section 4. The organization will not provide funds for any events that promote one race, color, creed, religion, gender, sexual orientation, or political affiliation.

Article VIII
Meetings and Quorums

Section 1. All meetings of the General Board, Executive Committee, and the business meetings of the General Membership shall be governed by the procedures as set forth in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, unless otherwise provided for in the organization's Constitution and Bylaws.

Section 2. General Membership meetings will be held at least twice a year.

Section 3. General Board Meetings: A quorum shall consist of two thirds of voting General Board members. Voting will be conducted in person. At the discretion of the President, voting may be conducted via proxy, email, postal mail, or phone.

- a. Proxy: a vote that is cast by one voting General Board member on behalf of another.
- b. The designated proxy General Board member and President or Secretary will be notified in advance.
- c. The designated proxy General Board member shall only hold one proxy.

Section 4. General Membership Meetings: A quorum shall consist of a majority of voting members present. At the discretion of the President, voting may be conducted via email, postal mail, or phone.

Section 5. Executive Committee Meetings: In the event the Executive Committee needs to conduct business in lieu of the General Board (See Article IV Section 5 of this document) a quorum shall consist of two thirds of the Executive Committee.

Article IX
Constitution and Bylaws

Section 1. Proposed Amendments to the Constitution: Outside the period of the biennial review. (See Article IX, Section 3 of this document)

- a. An active member may submit proposed amendments in writing to the President. Two additional active members of the organization must sign proposed amendments.
- b. Proposed amendments shall be submitted in writing to the General Membership through email at least one month prior to the General Membership email in which the amendments will be voted upon.
- c. Proposed amendments shall be submitted through email or postal mail to the General Membership at least seven days prior to voting.
- d. Proposed amendments will be adopted upon a majority vote at a General Membership meeting. (See Article VIII, Section 4 of this document)
- e. Proposed amendments will be adopted upon a majority vote via email or phone.

Section 2. The Bylaws may be amended by a majority vote of the voting members of the General Board at any regular or special meeting of the General Board provided all members of the General Board have been notified of the meeting.

Section 3. The Constitution and Bylaws shall be reviewed every two years by a Constitution and Bylaws Review Committee. The committee shall be comprised of the President, the President Elect, at least one Honorary Advisor, the Parliamentarian, and at least one member of the General Membership.

- a. Proposed amendments shall be submitted through email or postal mail to the General Membership at least seven days prior to voting deadline.
- b. Proposed amendments will be adopted upon a majority vote via email or postal mail.

Section 4. Any proposed amendments or changes to the Constitution and/or Bylaws will be submitted to the Installation Commander JB SA, for the final review or if by authority has been delegated by the 502d Force Group Commander (502 FSG/CC) through 502 FSS/CL (private organization coordinator).

Article X Dissolution

Section 1: Upon dissolution, BAMC Auxiliary's officers must:

- a. Notify the 502 FSS/CC or 502 FSS/CL of its intent to dissolve the organization.
- b. Prepare a time-phased action plan to do so.
- c. The Board shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all outstanding debts, liabilities or obligations of BAMC Auxiliary, dispose of the assets of BAMC Auxiliary to such organization or organizations which shall qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under the Internal Revenue Service code of 1986 (herein referred to as the "Code"), or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law.
- d. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be donated to a USAF NAF or to the USAF as determined by the General Board in accordance with AFMAN 34-201 or AFI 51-601, or shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction upon suitable proceedings brought for the purpose exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for tax exempt purposes.

Section 2: In the event that a NAFI fills the need for which this organization is established, this organization will be dissolved. Under those circumstances, all financial transactions of dissolution would be concluded separately and apart from the operation of any activity established as a NAFI.

Section 3: The 502 FSG/CC has the authority to dissolve this organization in the event that there are no members present or in the best interest of the USAF.

Article XI Insurance

Section 1. The organization agrees to hold harmless and indemnify the United States government, Brooke Army Medical Center, NAFI or any of its agents or sub-units for claims arising from any of the organization's activities.

Section 2. The organization conducts only low-risk activities, (fundraisers, parties). Insurance will be purchased if specific events include a greater risk of injury or damage.

Section 3. The organization will maintain liability and property damage insurance coverage commensurate with risk to protect against any claims or lawsuits that might arise from the commission or omission of acts by its members when acting in any capacity for or in participating in any activities of the organization. Such coverage, when required, must expressly provide that neither the U.S. Government or any NAFI will be liable for any claims or judgments against the organization or its members. A copy of the insurance policy and all renewal policies will be forwarded to the 502d Force Support Squadron Recourse Manager (502 FSS/FSR). If insurance is not deemed necessary, the organization will submit a request for waiver of insurance requirement to the 502 FSS/FSR for approval by the 502 FSG/CC through the 502 FSS/CL.

APPROVED BY MAJORITY VOTE OF THE GENERAL MEMBERSHIP on June 28, 2021.
